DAILY-EXCEPT SUNDAY, FOURTH OF JULY, THANKSGIVING,

OFFICE-PUBLIC LEDGER BUILDING, MAYSVILLE, KY.

SUBSCRIPTIONS-BY MAIL. DELIVERED BY CARRIER.

Payable to Collector at end of Month. Ir may be interesting, if embarrassing, to ask Mr. Kehoe if he favors a re-enactment of the Democratic Tariff Law of 1894.

AFTER a brick house had fallen on them, it was quite amusing to see the tattered remnants of the opposition scrambling for even a hind seat in the band wagon.

The Democratic papers that print in their news columns pictures of the farmer driving to the Bank with a hayframe filled with money. bags, the receipts from his high-priced crops, and in their editorial columns denounce the Republican policies which have brought about this result,-well, they are just a little bit inconsistent, don't you think?

HENRY G. DAVIS, the Democratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency, is an old man, a very old man, but he certainly should remember enough of the Buchanan Administration, long enough ago, as it seems, not to risk a comparison in any manner with that of today. One has but to turn back to a message which Bu-CHANAN himself as President sent to Congress for testimony as to what the conditions of the country then were. In his first annual message, that of 1857, President Buchanan declared-

"In the midst of unsurpassed plenty in all the productions of agriculture and in all the elements of National wealth, we find our manufactures suspended, our public works retarded, our private enterprises of different kinds abandoned and thousands of useful laborers thrown out of employment and reduced to want."

None need be ashamed of the vote he casts for Judge BENNETT.

"THERE are two Roosevelts in the field-the ideal, the legendary ROOSEVELT, as he once appeared, and as many people imagine him still to be; and the real ROOSEVELT, as he has since developed. There are, no doubt, many good citizens who think of voting for ROOSEVELT, baving the legendary ROOSEVELT in mind; but they will do well to consider that if elected, the real ROOSEVELT will be President."-From Carl Schurz's Letter.

Mr. Schurz may succeed in his purpose of proving that there are two Roosevelts, and he may not, says The Times-Star; but there can be no question that he has been successful in demonstrating that there are about fifty Schurzes -one for every year of his public life in America. The chameleon of American politics is the only term that applies to him. He has Back changed parties so often that it is almost impossible to keep count of him. The first public official to run the country contrary to his views was Abraham Lincoln. While Lincoln was busy trying to solve the many problems of the Civil War, Schurz busied himself with attacking him in the public press. Fortunately, LINCOLN'S reply to one of SCHURZ'S SCUTTIOUS Black Beauty Oil is unexcelled. For letters has been preserved. A less rhinoceroushided individual would have forever afterward held his peace. In 1872 Schurz became a Liberal Republican; in 1884 he bolted BLAINE; in 1896 he supported McKinley, and in 1900 bolted McKinley and supported Bryan. It is a pity that Bryan did not run again this year, in order that the many-sided Schurz could have kept up his record and bolted him.
